

Mission of Department of Motor Expression and Motor Rhythm Training

Prepare and qualify specialized staff in the field of teaching and training motor expression.

Develop girls' personality academically and educationally through courses and programs that award bachelor degree and post graduate studies matching the labor market and serving the society and environment affairs.

Department vision

Achieving differentiation, superiority and innovation to the local and international levels to reach the highest level of quality and heritage revival in the field of teaching and training motor expression and motor rhythm.